What needs your attention

1. Review published reviews waiting for your reply and respond where appropriate.
2. Wait for more reviews to receive sentiment labels before drawing conclusions about customer sentiment.

Read the next pages for activity, reviews and specialty support. Source and measurement notes appear at the end.

How customers found and saved you

Business appearances count recorded impressions. Visits count recorded profile openings. Saves count save events, which differ from the current number of Pocket holders.

Discovery activity

Measure	Selected period	Previous period
Business appearances	0	0
Profile visits	2	0
Unique profile visitors	2	0

Growth for business appearances, profile visits, unique profile visitors: Tracking coverage is unverified; a growth rate would be unreliable.

Anonymous peer comparisons

Source M10 (partial); see the final pages for coverage and freshness.

Comparison group: same business cluster, 1 eligible businesses. At least 5 are needed to disclose a comparison. Your business is excluded from the peer group.

The category group was too small, so the broader cluster was used.

The median is the middle result among eligible peers. It provides context; it does not rank quality or account for how long each business has been listed.

Measure	Your result	Peer median	Eligible sample
Profile visits	Not available	Not available	Not available
Pocket saves	Not available	Not available	Not available
Retained specialty support	Not available	Not available	Not available
Positive review share	Not available	Not available	Not available

Positive review share: Too few eligible businesses to show a comparison.

How to read this report

Stored review summary: No stored review summary is available. Source M8 (partial); see the final pages for coverage and freshness.

1 current published reviews have no qualifying retained reply.

The selected period has too few classified reviews for a sentiment conclusion.

No stored review summary is available.

Recorded visibility does not establish complete tracking or reliable growth.

The selected peer group is too small to disclose comparisons.

One reporting clock is used across sections; reads are not a cross-database transactional snapshot. Stored summaries retain their own coverage. Peer medians describe current eligible inventory and recorded activity, not business quality, causes, or normalized lifetime exposure.

Recorded events retain UTC-day deduplication. Period uniques are not sums of bucket uniques.

Recorded events retain UTC-day deduplication. Period uniques are not sums of bucket uniques.

Replies are assessed at generated_at for reviews created in each cohort; recent cohorts have less time to receive replies. Median uses retained reply creation timestamps; deleting and recreating replies loses original first-reply history. Sentiment uses stored labels on current published reviews, not historical moderation or classification snapshots.

Stored insights use their own rolling 30-day generation window, not the selected analytics period. Mention counts describe analyzed reviews only; is_sampled indicates subset sampling. No praise or concern polarity is inferred.
